

Parents Just Don't Understand!

It's awful to know that your parents don't get you. Your parents don't understand your swag, the clothes you wear, the music you listen to or the words you text. This unique interactive workshop is designed to help teens to fight and argue less with their parents. Teens will have an opportunity to learn from other teens and Dr. Tiffany Sanders on what to say and do to get along with their parents, how to compromise and how to deal with pressures teens face daily.

Pizza & drinks will be provided
