Neuropsychological Evaluations

The benefits of an evaluation are to make sense of a problem, clarify diagnoses, inform treatment and provide strategies to improve functioning at work, home or school

Our expertise areas are:

- ✓ Dementia
- ✓ Bariatric Surgery
- ✓ Spinal Cord Stimulator Surgery
- ✓ Mood Disorders
- ✓ Anxiety Disorders
- ✓ Learning Disabilities
- ✓ Oppositional Defiant Disorders
- ✓ Autism Spectrum Disorder
- ✓ Executive Function Disorders
- ✓ Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
- ✓ Accommodations for College Exams

A detailed patient-friendly report summarizing the results is provided. Additionally, at a parent's request, we also attend school consultation meetings to present the results.

Behavioral Interventions

We develop behavioral intervention plans designed to reinforce compliance and promote positive, pro-social behaviors in your child both at home and school.

"I just had to tell you that I'm confident that I made the right choice about sending my son to see you for counseling. Thanks for your help!"
